LATONIA'S SPLENDID LIST OF STAKE ENTRIES

PRICE 5 CENTS

NOW FOR FLORIDA SPECIAL

WEIGHTS ASSIGNED FOR $5,000 RACE TO BE RUN AT JACKSONVILLE NEXT SATURDAY.

Patronage of Meeting at Moncrief Park Keeping Up Wonderfully Well to End of Season-Donald Macdonald Wins Ocala Handicap.

Jacksonville. Fla., March 11.—It is really surprising how during these closing days of the long winter meeting at Moncrief Park the patronage is keeping up. The crowds are much larger than at the same time last season and speculation is as keen as during the height of the season. There are seyeral reasons for this, the principal one of which was the closing down of racing at Oakland. Many professional followers of racing who patronized the California track are here, and their presence has infused new life into the sport.

One of the richest stakes of the meeting is carded to be rum on Saturday next, when all of the cracks participating in the racing here will go to the post to battle for the $5,000 Florida Special. This is a handicap at one mile and a quarter. Of the forty-five original entries, thirty-six remain eligible to start. Those declared on January 1 were High Private. Pretend. Live Wire, Everett, Reybourn, Garneau, Filfill, Owanux and Judge Monck. The board of handlcappers have assigned top weight to the Reverwyck Stable's good racer. Sir John Johnson. He is asked to shoulder 131 pounds, and it is doubtful if his trainer will send him to the post. Donald Macdonald and Countless are given 125, and last year's American Derby winner, Polls, gets in at 122, Lady Ormicant and Barney Igoe are at the bottom of the list at 86 pounds. King's Daughter is in nicely at 116 pounds. It was given out that this mare did not fancy the going at Moncrief, and after her poor showing the first time that she started, it was said that she would be reserved for Kentucky racing. She was started back, however, a few days later and won a seven-eighths race in 1:278. There is no question as to the mare's class, and if T. C. McJowell declales to start her she is likely to be a factor. Countless, despite his 125 pounds, will probably cent favorite. J. W. May found fault with the weight assigned his charge, but that was to be expected. Countless is in extra good condition, according to report. His owner, John G. Greener, will proba

At the conclusion of the Moncrief meeting there will come a scattering of the horsemen, most of whom will divide between Kentucky and Virginia. The western division will ship to Lexington and Louisville, while the eastern contingent will go to Norfolk. A few will ship to Colorado to race over the inter-mountain circuit. Fred Gerhardy, who is here looking after the interests of the Jamestown Jockey Club, announces that reservations for stabling accommodations have been made by the following horsemen at the Norfolk track: E. F. Cooney, C. F. Clark, T. R. Condran, T. Burns, W. P. Austin, N. K. Beal, F. M. Bray, W. D. Babcock, Sam Louis, Beverwyck Stable, G. Denny, C. H. Davids, M. Dooley, C. De Witt, J. to Louisville after the running of the Florida Special on Saturday next.

Working Lad, carded as a starter in the first race, was taken sick last night and trainer George Ham was compelled to scratch him.

Mike Daly announced that he would probably send the three-year-old Barney Igoe to the post in the American Derby to be run April I.

The condition books for the Norfolk meeting arrived this morning and Secretary Fred Gerhardy

Cincinnati, O., March 11,—General Manager John Hachmeister has completed the tabulation of the entries for the eight stakes to be decided at Latonia during the spring meeting scheduled to open June 10 and close July 15. The grand total is 747, a wonderful showing. The results far exceed the expectations of Manager Hachmeister and his associates and represent a new mark for Latonia racing. The Cincinnati Trophy, for two-year-olds, drew the largest entry list—144. Its material comprises the cream of the inveniles that have been racing at the winter tracks, as well as many romising youngsters that are yet to make their debut. The nominations are notable for quality as well as quantity and presage a brilliant period of racing at the historic Latonia course this spring. DUNCRAGGAN REPORTED MEDIUM OF COUP.

Tampa, Fla., March 11.—Today marked the close of the originally scheduled period of racing here and developed nothing out of the ordinary except that Duncraggan, winner of the second race, according to report, was the medium of heavy backing throughout the driernoon as all the winners were well backed. Favorites accounted for four races, Charlie O'Brien, Anavri, Explicit and Horicon proving successful. Ideal weather prevailed and the attendance was good, but the sport was only mediocre.

Nearly all the owners here will remain for the announced three days of racing next week. Those with the better class horses will then ship to Jamestown for the meeting at Norfolk. It is intimated that another extension may be made here and that racing will continue as long as the patronage warrants.

H. Turner will ship his horses to Lexington during

QUARTERMASTER MEDIUM OF COUP.

W. G. Yanke's Recent Acquisition Justifies His New Owner's Judgment-Double for W. T. Anderson.

W. G. Yanke's Recent Acquisition Justifies His New Owner's Judgment—Double for W. T. Anderson.

El Paso, Tex., March 11.—Perfect racing weather and a fine card drew a Saturday crowd to the Juarez races today that was larger than usual. Good sport was witnessed throughout the afternoon and despite the success of but two first choices the public had a fairly good day, as the winners were all well backed. Manager Winn returned today from a visit to Louisville, Ky., and announced that over 1,150 entries were made for the twelve stakes to be run at the coming Churchill Downs meeting. Among the nominations are many from the stables of H. B. Duryea, R. F. Carman, F. R. and T. Hitchcock, Jr., James Butler and other eastern owners.

The feature event of the day furnished the means for the most extensive betting coup of the meeting in the victory of Quartermaster, the colt acquired by W. G. Yanke out of a selling race last Tuesday. Not conceded to have much of a chance in the company he was asked to meet, he opened at the liberal odds of 6 to 1, rose to as high as 8 to 1 and then was hammered down to as low at 3 to 1, finally receding to 5 to 1. Owner Yanke, who wagered lightly here, backed him elsewhere heavily and is reported to have profited by his victory to the extended at any part of the running, made every post a winning one and won with ease.

W. T. Anderson won two of the three races in which he had entries today. The winner of the first race, Gold Point, was offered at the morning paddock sale, but as a suitable bid was not forthcoming he was withdrawn. He would have been a profitable investment, as his success at the lucrative odds of 10 to 1 would have required the wagering of but a small sum to have won him out at the first asking.

Senor De La Arena, a popular Mexican turrinan, has purchased from M. Hirsch at private sale the horse Candieherry and will take him to Mexico City to race at the close of the present meeting.

John Rose and W. S. Rice, prominent layers of the middle west, arrived today to spend t

"Here is How to Win." Send M. O. $2.50 as first payment for my "New Winner Picker System," and promise to send me $2.50 each week until you have paid me $10 (providing you find it "A Winner" and just as represented). You will receive my "New Winner Picker System" promptly by return mail, and you will thank the day you sent for it, I am receiving third and fourth payments every mail from subscribers, and I am sure you will send the balance due me. This new system is strictly for "Flat Bet Handbook Play" and it is not a system of playing short-priced horses, but it puts them over at 10-1 and 15-1 and it's the system you need if you desire to beat the "Handbooks" playing small capital. It's good for all the year around and for all tracks, and if you den't find my "New Winner Picker System" just as represented, I will refund your money. You can play this system "Successfully" with the "Handbooks" to communications from anyone unless first payment of $2.50 is enclosed. Address
